Dated 03/12/13

CIRCULAR

The issue relating to the safety and security of women commuters in buses has once again been brought into the notice of all concerned and instructions in this regard were issued from time to time. Following instructions are again reiterated:

1. In the event of any incident of eve-teasing in the bus, the crew of the bus shall immediately take the bus to the nearest police station and give information to the police. Failure to do so will lead to strict disciplinary action against the crew.
2. The field staff like time-keepers, staff deployed at heavy loading points, checking officers etc. will also keep watch on such incidents and in case they notice any such incident of eve-teasing, they should immediately report the same to the nearest police station or to Women Helpline to save the victim from such crimes.
3. Suitable boards cautioning the act of eve-teasing shall be exhibited inside the buses, bus stands and bus terminals. The Women Helpline No. shall also be displayed inside the buses and bus stands/terminal. The action in this regard will be taken by the Depot Manager of the buses and for terminals and bus stands, the action will be taken by Civil Engineering Department.
4. RMs/DMs/Dy.CGM(C) shall counsel the staff/crew and also monitor the strict observance of the instructions.
5. DTC Training School will also organize special training programme on the women safety in the buses for the drivers and conductors so as to sensitize them to deal with the cases of eve-teasing in the buses.
6. In case the DTC staff is involved in the incident of eve-teasing etc., the same shall be treated with as a case of moral turpitude which makes him liable for removal or debarment from service. In case contractual employees are found involved in such cases, the contract shall be terminated.
